Item Whenever either of my daughters Lizzie and Mary shall marry I direct my executors to pay to either of them or each of them the sum of Five Hundred Dollars (without charging the same against them) for the purpose of buying furniture and if they shall not draw the same before a general distribution is made that amount shall be given to each of them before said equal distribution is made.

Item I give and bequeath to my son Henry the sum of eight hundred dollars for services rendered.

Item I give and bequeath to my son Franklin the like sum of eight hundred dollars for services rendered.